DISCLAIMER / DISCLOSURE / AFFIDAVIT

The data you send with this submission form may be used for the "Tape Measure Tuesday" or #TapeMeasureTuesday blog posts on ChellyWood.com, and by submitting your carefully calculated measurements, you give permission for Chelly Wood to post these measurements publicly on ChellyWood.com along with the brand name of the doll and your own personal name or business name (whichever you submit).

By submitting this form, you are giving permission for Chelly Wood / ChellyWood LLC and/or ChellyWood.com to use your name or business name or social media handle in a blog post with a disclaimer stating that the use of your name and/or social media links do not indicate that Chelly Wood / ChellyWood.com / ChellyWood LLC and/or Chelly Wood's constituents endorse your business and/or your social media presence.

Furthermore, submitting your doll's sewing measurements and/or name and/or business name does not guarantee that Chelly will use your measurements.

Your measurements will have a greater chance of being posted publicly on ChellyWood.com if you also provide a photo of the doll in a swimsuit or under garments for the infographic that Chelly may choose to create. You may send a photo digitally to Chelly's personal email at esthersparhawk@gmail.com with the subject heading Tape Measure Tuesday, or as a hard-copy photograph (in the US Postal Service mail).

Chelly Wood and her business ChellyWood LLC reserve the right to take down images and/or information associated with your doll measurements and/or your name and/or your social media links/handles at any time without notice to you and without explanation.

If you submit this form digitally, you are welcome to take a photo of the form after you fill it out and send it to esthersparhawk@gmail.com as a digital photo. But make sure your photo is readable; it may help to use blue or black ink when writing down your measurements.

By submitting your name and doll measurements, you agree to these terms. Please include this page (after signing and dating it) along with the measurements page.
